Asian American Studies 2
Contemporary Issues of Asian Americans
Spring 2015

Professor Kieu-Linh Caroline Valverde
4 units    CRN: 22889
Tuesday/Thursday 12:10 - 1:30 PM

This course explores contemporary post-1965 issues facing Asian Americans and how these topics intersect with ethnicity, race, class, gender, sexuality, and culture. We will utilize diasporic, national, international, and transnational frameworks to discuss Asian American experiences. This quarter we will also explore closely social movements and connect this history to current events affecting students at UC Davis.
