Asian American Studies 189H
“American Popular Culture for International Students”
Monday 4:10 pm to 8:00 pm
Spring Quarter 2015
Hart 1128
D. Hamamoto, Ph.D.

Professor Darrell Y. Hamamoto—nationally recognized authority on American popular culture—is offering a special course specifically for the International Student community and all others that seek an overview of everyday US society.

All disciplines and majors are welcome to this general introduction that includes popular music, movies, television, sports, mass-market fiction, and more.

Special screenings of movies, TV programs, and other media will attend each class meeting.

Please direct any questions to dyhamamoto@ucdavis.edu.