COMMUNITY EVENTS:

15% & Growing: The Policy Priorities and Civic Engagement of Asian Americans & Pacific Islanders In California

[Nov. 14, 2013 12-1PM King Hall Room 1001]

Come join us for a public forum on the policy priorities and civic engagement of AAPIs in California, featuring insights from policy scholars and community leaders on the ways to forge a new path forward.

Fil Am Dialogue: Typhoon Haiyan and Bohol Relief Efforts

[Nov. 14, 2013 7-9PM SCC Meeting Room D]

Please join the UC Davis Fil Am Community on Thursday, November 15th to discuss and take action on relief efforts for those in the Philippines affected by Typhoon Haiyan and the Bohol Earthquake. This is a crucial time for communities to come together to raise awareness of these natural disasters and mobilize relief efforts.

Bring Donations to the Student Recruitment & Retention Center [Student Community Center, 1st Floor]

The Student Recruitment & Retention Center (SRRC) located in the Student Community Center is currently accepting monetary and material donations.

Monetary donations will be given to the National Alliance for Filipino Concerns (NAFCON), an organization that works closely with grassroots relief organization to ensure money goes directly to the community.

Suggestions for material donations:

- Non-perishable food that does not require water, electricity or can openers
- Basic medicine and first-aid kit supplies for surface wounds
- Bottled water
- Candles and matches
- Clothing
